

DOCOMO PACIFIC

---

VISION 2020 AND BEYOND: CATALYSTS FOR THE PACIFIC

30 YEARS OF OPERATION IN THE PACIFIC

Sunday, 19 January 2020

John Rhee, VP – Transport Network

Agenda

---

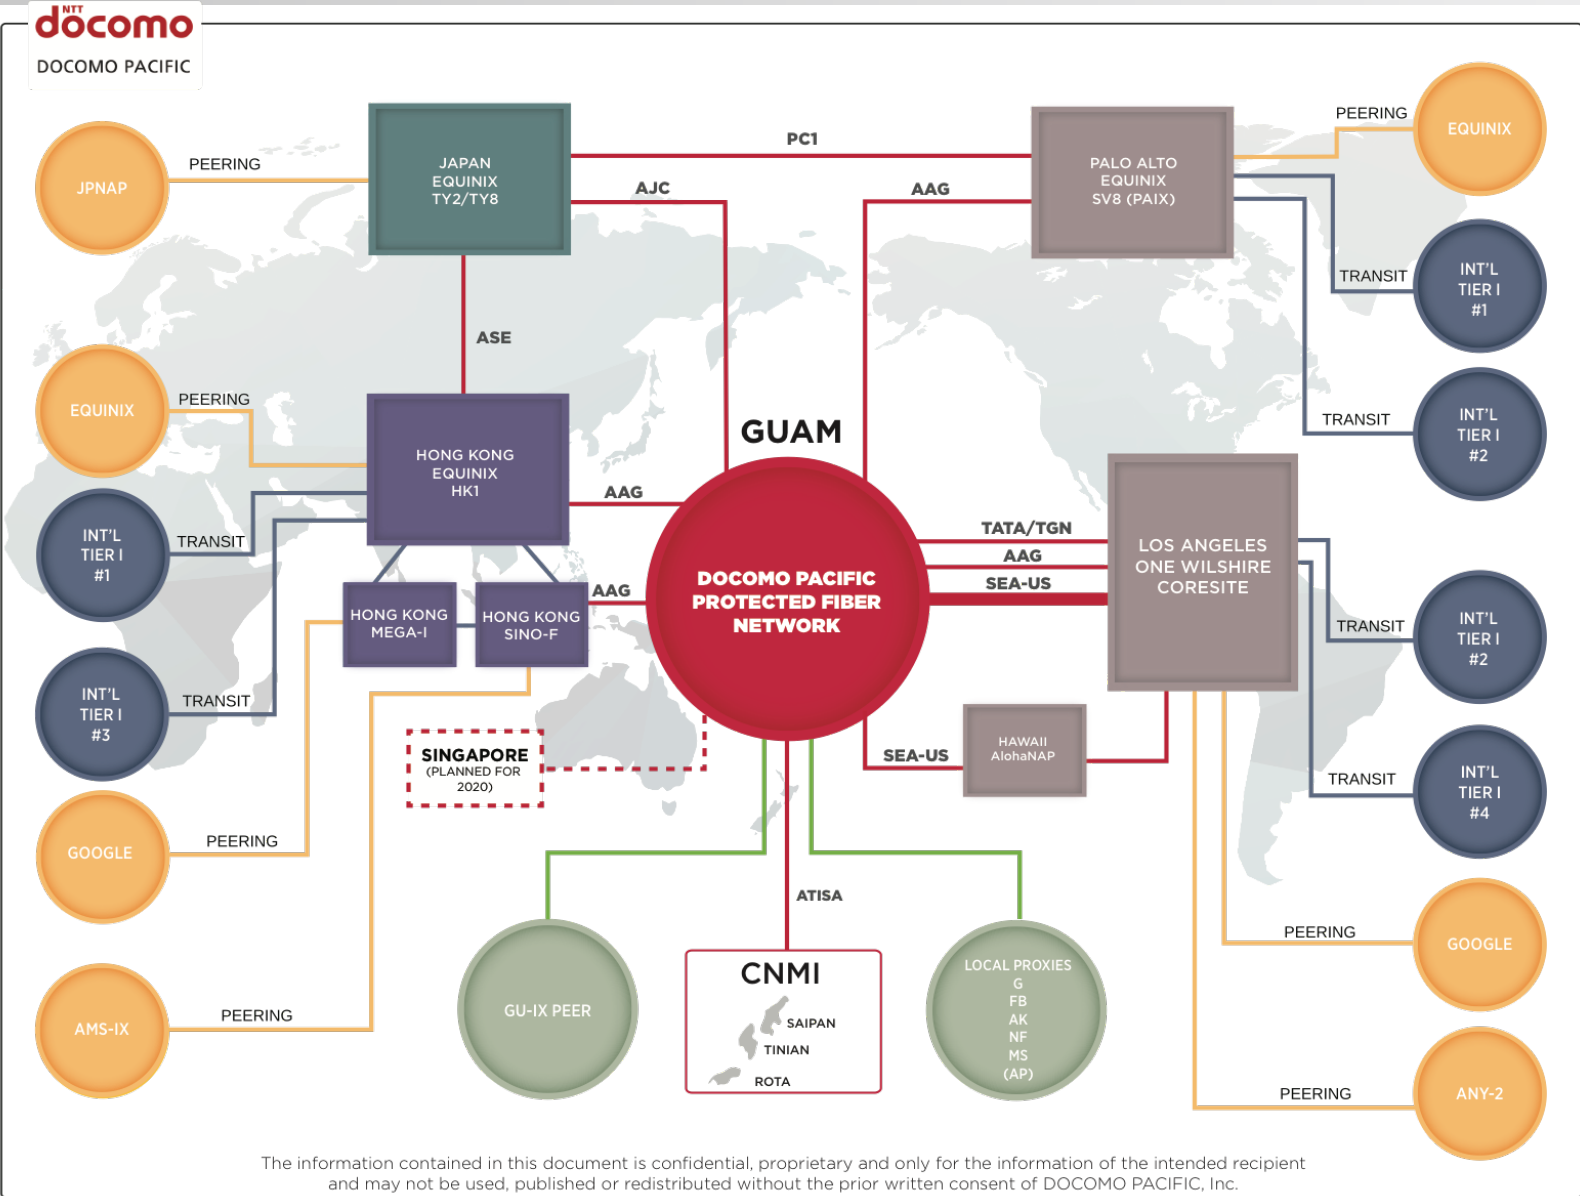

- Docomo Pacific Overview
- Capacity Management & Planning
- Redundancy and Reliability
- Openness and Operator Collaborations

About DOCOMO PACIFIC

A wholly-owned subsidiary of Japan telecommunications giant, NTT DOCOMO, Docomo Pacific was a merger of Guamcell, HafaTel, MCV and Kuentos Comm. We provide Mobile, Internet, TV and Voice services including Enterprise and Carrier Businesses. Docomo Pacific is a local company, deeply rooted in Guam and the Marianas, committed to providing the best telecommunication services to our community.

DOCOMO PACIFIC - Global Connectivity

DOCOMO PACIFIC – Bandwidth Management

INTERNET TRAFFIC PROFILE

DOCOMO PACIFIC - Inter-Island Connectivity: ATISA

ATISA is a DOCOMO PACIFIC wholly owned submarine cable system connecting the Marianas Islands.

The first Open Cable System in the region.

DOCOMO PACIFIC - Colocation Facilities

Multiple Colocation Facilities Available Today

Locations:

- Harmon Facility
- Hagatna
- Piti (Tata)
- Pulantat -Teleport

Colocation:

- Carrier Neutral
- Managed Services
- Access Security

Connections:

- Diverse cable routes
- On/Off island connectivity
- On Net Access to all Guam Cable Landing Stations
- Guam Internet Exchange (GU-IX)

DOCOMO PACIFIC - Teleport

Satellite Connectivity for Micronesia and Outer Islands

- In late 2018, DOCOMO PACIFIC began work on rehabilitating a decommissioned Earth Station in Pulantat, Guam
- Long-term plan to provide services and redundancy to outer islands and partners.

DOCOMO PACIFIC - Subsea Cable Hub

Source:
TeleGeography
Submarine Cable Map

Thank You