

5G and Wi-Fi 6: What's Important Now

PATRICIA PAOLETTA, Partner
Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP

HARRIS, WILTSHIRE & GRANNIS, LLP

Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP (HWG) is one of the world's premier telecom and technology law firms.

HWG has represented many of the most innovative telecom, cloud, submarine and satellite companies before government agencies.

- HWG's success in providing innovative counsel has been widely recognized by clients and legal rankings including The Legal 500, consistently awarding HWG's telecom team its highest ranking, and Chambers USA, awarding our team its prestigious "Band 1" telecom ranking for 13 straight years.
- HWG has developed innovative regulatory concepts for our satellite clients and advocated successfully for the largest expansion of Wi-Fi spectrum in history.
- HWG has emerged as the leading U.S. legal advisor to companies that are developing completely new classes of communications technologies, including, new types of wireless devices, AR/VR, wireless charging, and small satellites.

ABOUT THE PANELIST

- Recognized as a “Best Lawyer” in her field, Patricia Paoletta’s practice focuses on spectrum policy, connected devices and international market access.
- She represents the trade association 5G Americas, proponents of Wi-Fi 6E and a leading telecoms provider in Southeast Asia and their U.S. subsidiary.
- Ms. Paoletta provides advice on regulatory policy to clients before the FCC, the U.S. Administration and the International Telecommunication Union and was selected by the Chair of the FCC to head their Advisory Council for the next World Radiocommunication Conference.
- Before private practice and serving as Vice President, Government Relations at an Internet service provider, Ms. Paoletta was senior advisor to the FCC’s International Bureau Chief and subsequently served as Director of Telecommunications Trade Policy at the U.S. Trade Representative, Executive Office of the President, where she negotiated a number of multilateral and bilateral trade agreements, including with China, the European Union, Japan, and South Korea.
- After USTR, Ms. Paoletta served in Congress as Counsel to the House Commerce Committee before returning to the private sector.

